FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1910.

It won't be long now until the candidates for county offices will be swinging around in the rural districts.

Stark county democrats will hold a big picnic today at Meyer's lake. Leading democrats in Stark, Columbiana and Mahoning counties are on the speaking list. It is expected that Atlee Pomeroy, candidate for lieutenant governor, and J. J. Whitacre, candidate for congress in this district, will be given a great boom.

Governor Harmon may have incurred the displeasure of the sporting element by putting a stop to pool selling at Randall last week, but he only performed his sworn duty when he did so. The law prohibits pool selling and when complaint was made to him that the law was being violated it was his plain duty to act, and he did not hesitate to do so.

Republican governor candidate Warren G. Harding will be in Cleveland next Saturday to attend the eighth annual outing of the league of republican clubs of Cuyahoga county. Arrangements have been made to entertain 100,000 people. Mr. Harding is on the speaking list and the occasion will mark the opening of a campaign that promises to be the hottest ever.

YOUNGSTOWN.

Frank Jacobs has brought suit against the Erie railroad company for damages in the sum of $20. He had been assured arrival at Canton at a certain time by the company changing cars at Kent, and going by conveyance from one station to the other. No conveyance was there and he missed his train, hence the action.

Congressman Kennedy spends much time these days in his office in the K. of C. building, and it is a safe guess that he and his faithful lieutenant and secretary, Ed. A. King, are making plans calculated to compass the defeat of the democratic candidate for congress, Mr. Whitacre, at the election in November.

Wm. Baumann of Youngstown, aged 21, a daring bicycle rider, was killed Saturday at Fall River, Mass., during one of his thrilling feats. His act was known as the "Dare Devil Dash," and consisted of riding down a steep inclined ladder and making a subsequent jump of 50 feet into a tank of water. His wheel broke when about half way down the ladder causing him to be hurled to the ground.

The false work on the second floor of the new Mahoning National bank building collapsed Tuesday morning and three men were hurled 18 feet to the basement. Geo. Cunningham, boss carpenter, was so badly injured that he died. Two of the men, both colored, are not seriously hurt.

The condition of Dr. Geo. Peck, who is suffering from blood poisoning, is improving.

Next term of common pleas court opens Monday, Sept. 12.

The foreign element of the city continues to furnish numerous cutting scrapes.

Geo. Stacy, found guilty for the second time of keeping his saloon open on Sunday, was fined by Judge Brandmiller $150 and costs and sentenced to ten days in jail.

A family of five at Briar Hill was poisoned Tuesday by eating toaststools which had been mistaken for mushrooms. All will recover.

Thousands attended the Welsh pioneer picnic Wednesday at Avon park.

Peter Gillespie, a resident of this city for 20 years, died Wednesday, aged 74.

There are 40 children at the fresh air camp.

Tony Marano, an Italian boy 15 years old, was drowned in the Mahoning river Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Palmer, a teacher in the city schools for 27 years, has been retired on a pension.

Grand and Petit Jurors for the next term of common pleas court have been summoned. Grand jurors are to report for duty Monday, Sept. 12, and petit jurors one week later. Following is the list of jurors:

Grand Jurors—D. E. Webster, B. F. Boyd, Solomon Cutler, William W. Harris, Walter H. Canfield, Patrick J. Barrett, J. H. Price, David F. James, Harry S. Rossart, Youngstown; D. H. Dickson, Columbiana township; C. W. Ressler, Ellsworth township; C. J. Roller, Green township; John L. Becker, D. H. Stewart, Poland township; Henry Crum, Springfield township.

Petit Jurors—D. B. Wonseller, Youngstown township; Lewis C. McCordie, Jackson township; C. B. Pipper, Milton township; Lemuel Beedell, Berlin township; Emilen Barnes, Ellsworth township; William Kohler, Charles Barth, Springfield township; H. E. Mentzer, Beaver township; Henry Lang, Bert Durr, R. M. Justice, C. W. Hendricks, Green township; George Miller, H. E. Calhoun, Smith township; Charles W. McClain, Anthony Welch, Frank S. Hawn, George Wardle, J. Wick, W. P. Kerr, Eunice P. Cunningham, Edward Coleman, August Fiebler, Fred Gairing, H. E. Burt, Morris Goodman, H. W. Barnes, John McGuire, George Higley, I. C. Foust, Youngstown.

The longer you put off a disagreeable task the more disagreeable the task becomes. Isn't it surprising that there isn't an occasional exception to this rule? But there never is.

SALEM.

The remains of Mrs. Eliza Moore, who died in Van Port, Pa., last Saturday night, arrived here Tuesday and were buried in Hope cemetery. Deceased was 78 years old.

About 7000 gallons of oil have been received for use on roads in Perry township. The piked Lisbon road will be the first oiled.

A number from this city on Wednesday attended the Mead family reunion at the home of Wm. Lloyd, north of Garfield.

Many people enjoyed the band concert in Centennial park last Sunday afternoon.

Warren Gardner, who is held in Youngstown charged with stealing hides from slaughter houses, formerly resided in this city. Some time since Ed Votaw's slaughter house northwest of the city was broken into and hides valued at $100 taken.

Betty Saxton has sold her farm of 80 acres on the Ellsworth road to Mrs. R. E. Bullard who will engage extensively in raising blooded cattle. Mrs. Anna Kynett of this city died last Saturday at the home of Geo. Sams, near Beloit, after long suffering with cancer. Her age was 64 years.

Theodore Kremsler, found guilty for the third time of violating the Rose local option law, was fined by Mayor Carlile $300 and costs. The mayor is disposed to complain because liquor cases from this city were taken before Lisbon, a mayor instead of before Judge Farr. Under the law, fines assessed in mayor's courts go to the municipality while in probate court fines go to the city or town from which the cases come and to the county.

David Jordan, father of Mrs. W. H. Matthews of this city, died last week on a train near Chicago while on his way home to David City, Neb., after a visit here with his daughter. Death was caused by heart disease from which he had suffered for some time.

A straw vote taken as to preference for the location of the new federal building showed the one at the corner of Main and Depot streets to be the most popular. Second choice was the site at the corner of Chestnut and East Green streets.

A. J. Astory has sold his real estate and insurance business in this city to B. F. Stackhouse of Lisbon who has taken possession. Mr. Astory will remain with Mr. Stackhouse for a short time and then locate in Youngstown.

At Lisbon last week Mayor Hinchcliffe of Lisbon fined Mrs. Demeo of this city $250 and costs for selling liquor in dry territory. Mrs. M. E. Costello, found guilty on two counts for violating the liquor laws, was fined $350 and costs.

Theodore Doeche, who conducted an Italian boarding house in this city, pleaded guilty at Lisbon last week to violating the liquor laws and was fined $200 and costs. Joe Andy, for resisting an officers, was assessed $50 and costs.

City are admittedly of antiquated style but it is likely they are as modern in furnishing as the company in furnishing. It has been decreed by the powers that all poplar trees in the city must be laid low. It is claimed their roots clog the sewers.

A street car collided with Wm. Carpenter's new automobile Tuesday afternoon and badly damaged it.

Warren Gardner, charged with taking hides belonging to E. G. Votaw, was given a hearing Wednesday before Mayor Carlile and held to answer in common pleas court, bond being fixed at $400.

Mrs. Chas. Triem died Tuesday evening of cancer of the stomach. She is survived by her husband and three children. Funeral services Thursday afternoon.

Charged With Hide Stealing.

Joseph Peloe, Leroy Toot, George Neff and Warren Gardner are locked up at police station, charged with being suspicious characters. These men were brought in by Detective George B. Moyer and Clerk Guy Jacobs. It is alleged they have been carrying on wholesale hide robberies for several months. Peloe and Toot have confessed their connection with the robberies.

According to Detective Moyer, who worked on the case for a long time, Peloe, Toot and Neff raided the hide house of Lewis Zimmerman, the meat dealer, at Cornersburg, time and again, stealing about $700 worth of hides, which they disposed of in Girard—during the past few months. The detectives were aware of the robberies and were after the thieves before Mr. Zimmerman knew he was being robbed. Peloe and Gardner are alleged to have gone to Salem where they stole a lot of hides some time ago. Gardner is not thought to have been mixed up in the Zimmerman robberies.

Peloe lives in the city while Toot and Neff are neighbors of Mr. Zimmerman. Peloe and Toot admitted to the detective that they had frequently taken hides from Zimmerman's hide house. Many of the hides have been recovered but all could not be returned as the stealing had been going on for months—Vindicator.

Leroy Toot, who pleaded guilty to taking part in the Zimmerman hide robberies, turned state's evidence Tuesday morning when John Peloe and George Neff were arraigned for grand larceny. He was the principal witness for the state in consideration of which he will be allowed to plead guilty to petit larceny, instead of grand larceny. Judge Brandmiller said Tuesday morning that it being the first time Toot was mixed up in anything of the kind he would let him off with a suspended sentence. Peloe and Neff, who are charged with grand larceny, were each bound over to the grand jury. Their bond was fixed at $500 each and was furnished by relatives.

TOOT'S CORNERS.

NEW BUFFALO.

Extracts from letter from J. C. Lloyd, J. P. Ambrose, Chambers county, Texas, to Abe Lloyd:

We have a very fine country here—old in history but new in development. Large tracts of land heretofore owned by cattlemen and used entirely for pasture, no roads, no drainage, no enterprise, all travel was by boat or horseback and the people generally satisfied with corn-meal, molasses and hog meat to eat; to dance and hunt their main ambition. A change is going on now. People from the north-east states are investing in land and making improvements. Schools and churches are being built. Bonds are voted so that good roads can be made. Drainage ditches have been and are being made where needed. About 10,000 acres of land are in rice now but a change from rice to fruit and truck is going on, so that in a few years many thousands acres will be in orchards of oranges and figs with some peaches, plums and small fruits interspersed.

One year ago last May I planted 8 one-year-old fig slips. This year we got enough figs for our use. Orange trees planted last year have a few oranges on this year. Last year a man a few miles from here sold over $1,000 worth of oranges from a six-acre orchard of 8-year-old trees. The yield of one tree in the east part of this county last year sold for $50. (30 cents a dozen.) Of course this is exceptional. However, a very conservative estimate of income of $200 to $500 an acre from trees 4 years old and upward can safely be expected. As to climate the mercury gets pretty high in the sun, but in the shade 92 degrees is the highest since we came here four years ago and 35 degrees is the lowest. In June, July, August and part of September the mercury ranges from 60 to 90 degrees. During the other months the temperature is very pleasant indeed. Even in the hot months I work from five to ten hours a day at something out doors and feel well most of the time.

I forgot to say that all shades of politics and all kinds of religious beliefs are represented here. There may be more politicians and church members. We are all sinners and expect to reform and die some time, or rather change from earth and this life to some other place and existence but most of us do not pretend to know what that change will be or where our future abode or conditions may be. However, most of us believe in the Golden Rule and plan our faith thereto.

Our Grand Jury System.

It has long been a much mooted question among men well versed in law as to the hearing of our grand jury system has upon the equal rights of the two parties interested in a criminal procedure—whether or not it is showing justice to the accused to place him, as it were, on trial without the opportunity of combating the state. Quite a number hold to the old theory that this way of condemning a man before he comes to trial is the only method whereby the law can be properly applied so as to secure a conviction, while the more modern thinkers believe to the contrary—believe that a defendant should be allowed the same rights as the state in placing his case before the grand jury. Others believe, and we think them right in their belief, that the grand jury should be done away with altogether.

In Wisconsin the system has been obliterated from the statutes and from all reports her citizens are well pleased with its abolishment. Under the law in that state—and the same rule might well be adopted in all states—information can be laid before the prosecuting attorney who gives the accused a chance to be heard, and if the facts seem to warrant further proceedings, a preliminary hearing is held before a competent court.

The meritorious feature of the system is that it does away with the ex parte methods which are characteristic of grand jury investigation. To brand a man as a suspected criminal by means of an indictment, without permitting him to make a defense, is unjust and harmful.

It may be contended, says an exchange, that the Wisconsin law lodges too much power in one man, the prosecutor, who, if he be a venal man, might defeat justice and permit rogues to escape punishment. This criticism is not sound. For even under our grand jury system the prosecutor possesses extraordinary influence. He conducts the examination of witnesses, and in most cases the jury acts on his recommendations. If he were unfaithful to his trust or in league with evil doers, he could make a farce of the hearing, or, failing in that, could draw defective indictments or afterward be so indifferent in his prosecution of the accused as to insure an acquittal.

Nearly every community can cite examples where grave injustice has been worked through ex parte hearings before grand juries, and the marvel is that the people have so long endured the institution. Sentiment against it has grown rapidly during the last few years, and the experience of Wisconsin should hasten the day when the grand jury will be discarded by every state in the union.—Pentecostal News.

Bowman Family Reunion.

The 28th annual reunion of the Bowman family was held Thursday at the Bowman reunion grounds, two and one-half miles south of Ellsworth. Rev. O. A. Simpson of the Salem Episcopal church gave a very interesting address in the morning. At noon two hundred and seventy-five sat down to an elegant dinner. In the afternoon an interesting program was carried out with speaking and singing and one or two addresses by different members of the family. Those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman and Joseph Seaburg of Albion, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tague and Miss Sarah Price of Fairchance, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Burchnall and daughter Grace of Gans, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. David Nes of Scottsdale, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Kinley of California, Pa., Dr. J. C. Richards, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Smith of Ashland county, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Setzman and Mrs. Robert McClellan and children of Mogadore Summit county. Others were present from Canton, Alliance, Lisbon, Salem, Leetonia, Winona, Homeworth, Youngstown, Niles, Edinburg, Lordstown, Berlin Center, Ellsworth and Canfield. The officers elected for the coming year were president, A. S. Bowman; secretary, E. O. Manchester; treasurer, M. E. Bowman. The reunion next year will be held the second Thursday in August at the same place.

Hair does not make the woman, particularly if it is just hair.

Be a Property Owner.

No road to competence is smoother than that which starts from the purchase of well-chosen real estate. No man of ordinary income should neglect to invest a portion of his earnings in land.

The young man who makes a payment on a piece of property and assumes further payments will not throw his money away foolishly. A liability of that kind teaches a man to save, gives him a standing in the community, awakens civic pride in his bosom, and makes him a better citizen.

More than sixty years ago the railway John Hunt of New York tried to have him declared insane because he had paid $2,400 for a bit of New York real estate. The other day the same piece of property sold for $1,825,000.

Real estate in the right location is an ideal investment. It cannot be destroyed, burned, lost or stolen. And it will increase more rapidly than money in almost any other form.

The young man who puts his money into lots, instead of squandering every cent on that characteristically American delight known as "having a good time" which is the real cause of extravagance, is laying a foundation for success. He is the kind of young man who will command the respect of others early in life, and whom the right sort of girl will be proud to call her husband.

How much do you earn, young man? How much can you save? Take account of your circumstances and find out what amount you can put aside each week or each month. Go out and find a district that is building up. Be a property owner and lay the foundation for a fortune.—Chicago Journal.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Council of the Village of Canfield, O., until 12 o'clock, noon, Monday, August 20, 1910, for furnishing the material and labor for laying sidewalks. Plans and specifications may be seen and blank forms for bids had at the Clerk's office. Bids shall contain the full name of every person interested and accompanied by a guarantee that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into and the performance of it properly secured.

The Village Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the Village Council. WILL PARSALL, Clerk. Canfield, O., August 3, 1910. 19-3
